“ I remember first meeting Chuck in the dialysis unit. He was a paramedic at that time. He was always great with the patients. That was 20 plus years ago and we were all younger and healthier. I hope that Chuck will find his way to my late husband in heaven. They had been in the car shows long long ago. Chuck and Dale will be watching over us until we meet them again.

“ This photo was taken just a few weeks ago at my home. Chuck and my dog Cinder cuddling. Cinder is generally shy with strangers, but she immediately warmed up to Chuck and sat like this with him for hours. No doubt she could sense his beautiful loving soul. I am so blessed to have had the chance to meet Chuck. Our brief meeting left a permanent memory that I will cherish. Jean, thank you for the opportunity to meet him. I know he is in heaven! But also, please know that I am here for you and I love you!
