“ My earliest memory of Chuck was sitting at our kitchen table while he was showing us how to crack walnuts with our bare hands. That was probaly almost 40 years ago and there were many more long that time. I will never forget Chuck ever.

Dear Jean, I remember the Navy photo of your brother. When I was 13 I thought he was so handsome. I accidentally ran across this notice. I am so sorry but happy to see that he had a nice life and a nice family. It appears he had a good, good life.
