“ I am sorry I was not able to attend the service for Chuck. I remember when my parents took me and my sister to see his mom (my Aunt Sherry) and his dad (my uncle Chuck). He was full of life and fun to be around. I know it has been a long time still seeing him, but I know he had not changed. I know we called him Chucky at the time. I missed seeing him and his sisters (Denise and Diana) and also his sister Debbie who I have not seen since she was little. I also miss his mom and dad. I know he is now with his mom and dad. With the grace of God, Chuck will be looking down at his family with a smile. My prayers will always go out to his family with love for support and healing in the time to come.

“ In this picture, Charles looks like his mom and my aunt. I remember him very clearly as a little boy and I called him little Chucky. He was a real cutie and always very sweet.
I'm so sorry for his family's loss and will continue to send prayers for comfort and healing. He is in heaven and in God's hands.
