“ As I look and read this I have to take a deep breath you have touched so many lives I can say you have been my step mom for many years but more like my real mom from being there growing needing someone to lean on to being in the delivery room when having my kids I have countless memories of how much you love the grandkids from little Dalt and you talking on the phone and seeing him stand in the yard thinking what is he doing and you pulling up him jumping in and you yelling I will bring him back in about a week driving away while the two of you would laugh the kids all of them have so much respect and love for you from the football games and schools and cooking but I do know we all remember the smile even when you were going through things of your own you would never know because of that smile and the best hug a person could get I LOVE YOU and you have taught me and my kids a lot until we meet again!!!!!!

“ Well Shit everyone. I just want all of you to know you have had the opportunity to know the most special/amazing woman in the entire world. Our mom showed us that no matter who, what, when, where, or the how. You were to always be there for the ones you love. She showed her love unconditionally to everyone. Especially her kids and grandkids. I hope you all never forget this amazing woman. I know she loves all of you and appreciated everyone of you being a part of her life. I'll tell you what. Good or bad times you would never know. That was just the person she was. Nothing was ever wrong. She held on to everyone else's problems so she could try and come up with a plan to make their life better. Everyone else always came first no matter what. I can only pray to be half the person my mom was. I always joke that I am the favorite child. Truth be told mom had no favorites when it came to us kids. Sure I may have been high up there on the scale 🥰 but we talked about how proud she was of all of us in our own ways. All I know is my Mom is finally pain free!!! She fought until the very end. Once again because that is the woman she was. Even with all pain in her body she fought and fought to enjoy as much time as she could with her friends and family. Life will never be the same. It's too short. So hug and kiss the ones you love every chance you get! WE LOVE YOU MOM!!!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I knew Cheryl during her late teen years, she was my best friend's older sister. She was so pretty and had such a fun personality. I loved the sound of her laughter. Once she met and fell in love with Dolton, her life had a new purpose. I know, through Kim, that Cheryl loved as deeply as she was loved and will be missed. She was an angel among us, and God called her home. My prayers and thoughts are with all of you. With love and sympathy, Rochelle Stephenson
