“ Shannon,

I used to babysit you when you were a little boy. Your mother was always a special person to me. She would bring you in at 5:30am so she could go cook at Little Corporal. She forgot to kiss you good-bye one morning (cause you were always sleeping) so you ran out of my house and down the street after her in the rain. To say the least she never forgot again! Cheryl and I kept in touch at Menards and she always bragged about your successful business. She was very proud of you. Kris would also like to send his sympathies. Take care of yourself and think about that kiss she gave you every morning when you were little. She loved you so much.

“ Even if you left us 50 years from now, it would still be too soon. You were a great big sister. You didn't beat me up, I beat you up. I remember when I started high school, I sat with you on the bus so nobody would mess with me. You took care of us in little ways. I see that now.

Rest in Peace. Tell mom "Hi".

Love,

“ Cheryl was very nice to me as a kid growing up with Shannon. She helped us to get our business going and was fun to be around. Times like these make me realize short lived bad times should not outweigh so many years of good times. ï¿½My deepest sympathies to Shannon, Amy, Kenny Jr., and the rest of your families.##imported-begin##Matthew Mill##imported-end##

“ To Gene and Butch: Cheryl was an extremely funny, caring, genuine and sincere LADY. I am so sorry for your loss. Knowing how hard she fought and how much pain she had to be in hopefully will bring you the comfort you need to know she is no longer suffering and is in Heaven. She will be missed but never forgotten. Marilyn Gallois

“ You were so much more to me than my aunt, you were one of my closest friends. I think of all of the good times we had together, that most people don't even know about. All of the times we went out for dinner, or just a drive around town with an ice cream cone. All of the nights you came and hung out with me at grams, or when Josh and I came and hung out in your basement, and you would laugh until you cried. Even when we sat in grams car, eating chinese food watching fireworks last 4th of July. Even when I was a kid, you always treated me like your own daughter, and took me places. Hanging out with you always made me smile, and I will miss you terribly.
