

Christopher Castine

October 12, 1956 - October 21, 2008

Christopher M. Castine, 52, of Bourbonnais, formerly of Midlothian, died Tuesday (Oct. 21, 2008) at Bourbonnais Terrace, after a short illness. Funeral services will be private. Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society. Clancy-Gernon Funeral Home, Bourbonnais, is in charge of arrangements. He was born Oct. 12, 1956, in Blue Island, the son of Richard A. Sr. and Harriet Heatherly Castine. Surviving are two brothers and one sister-in-law, Richard and Jamie Castine of Nevada, Michael Castine of Midlothian; one sister, Heather Hill of Midlothian; his father of Midlothian; and many nieces and nephews. Deceased are his mother and one brother, Ralph Castine. Christopher was a kind and gentle soul. He was loved and cherished by his family and the many friends he made while living at Bourbonnais Terrace. He will be sadly missed by all who knew him. Chris touched many hearts and will always be remembered.

Tribute Wall

“ To my brother Christopher.

Chris was a very gentle and kind man. Always made time for you. Ready and willing to give a smile or hug or both at the shrug of a shoulder. That was Chris. I called Chris every week end and randomly throughout his short life. He never failed to bring a smile to my face. No matter what his situation was he made sure you felt good. I Love my brother Chris and will miss our phone calls very much. I thank the entire staff at Bourbonnais Terrace for all the love and attention they gave Christopher during his stay there. That really was his home and you all were his extended family. Of that there is no doubt. God Bless you Christopher, you will be missed.##imported-begin##Rick Castine##imported-end##

October 23, 2008 at 08:42 AM

“ To the family of Chris,

 I just wanted to tell you what a nice guy Chris was. I cut his hair at Bourbonnais Terrace and when I first meet him he would just nod his head and smile, but as months went by he would wave and say hi with that smile, He never really talked that much, but one day when I was cutting his hair out of the blue he said his mom died and I told him how sorry I was and he just nodded. A few months ago when he came in and I asked how he was and he said he just came in from the hospital and he was sick and his sister just left. I just saw in the paper about his passing and I did not know he was that sick. I will miss seeing him on Tuesdays with that smile. I am so sorry for your loss, Your family will be in my families thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Shanda Jenkins##imported-end##

October 23, 2008 at 08:42 AM

“ I met Chris at Palos Hospital, the first thing that I noticed was what a quiet, gentle man.

As I got to know him I realized what a special soul God had sent to us.

I truly blessed that I had the chance to know him.

He will be remembered!

Peace be with all of his family & friends at this time.##imported-begin##NULL##imported-end##

October 23, 2008 at 08:42 AM

“ I remember the first time I saw Chris, he was at Palos Hospital. ĩ½When he came to Bourbonnais Terrace, he was very quiet, and did not speak to anyone. ĩ½More and more he began to have his hand out and anyone who went by, he would not speak, but he would always hold his hand out. And then he talked to everyone. ĩ½He was a kind, gentle soul who was loved by so many of the staff and residents. ĩ½My sincere sympathy to Heather and all his family. ĩ½He will be missed.##imported-begin##debbie wood##imported-end##

October 23, 2008 at 08:42 AM