

Clarence Bump

August 4, 1938 - June 3, 2014

Clarence E. Bump, 75, of Manteno, formerly of Lockport for 25 years, passed away Tuesday (June 3, 2014) at Hinsdale RML Specialty Hospital. Visitation will be from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. Thursday at the Clancy-Gernon Funeral Home, Manteno, where funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Friday. The Rev. Jack McCormick will officiate. Private family burial will be in Brooks Cemetery, Homer Township. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Masonic charities, which will go to Masonic Children's Home.

Mr. Bump was a retired stationary engineer for John Buck Management. He was born Aug. 4, 1938, in Joliet. He was a member of The Valley of Danville Scottish Rite, a life member of the Peotone and Chebanse Masonic Lodges, and a member of the Medinah Shrine. He enjoyed fishing and camping.

Surviving are his wife, the former Carol R. Harper, of Manteno, whom he married in 1964, in Joliet; one son and daughter-in-law, Greg and Sue Bump, of Braceville; two daughters and one son-in-law, Linda and Jeff Hunter, of Clarendon Hills, and Gail; two grandchildren, Charlie and Ben; and special friend, Richard Collins, of Coal City.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

“ My brother .. This was so unexpected not never did I ever think those 4 short years we had together would be it. Just not enough time no wish you would have contacted me years ago. I miss you daily n love you still. Will never forget that first phone call now then to finally get to meet you n. Carol. The the rest of my family. What a blessing. I can't believe your gone as you promised we would meet again. But that didn't happen as you got sick. I will always remember you n our talks as we had so much catching up to do. I will always treasure that short time we had together just wish it would have been longer. I miss you my brother n love you too. We will meet again in heaven n can't wait to see that smile again. Love you always your sister carol

“ Clarence I know you called me for a reason n that was to meet a brother I didn't know I had. It took 71 yrs but it was all so worth it. The 4 yrs we meet and talked want long enough but I cherish the time we did have together. I miss you so much but will meet in heaven. I love you n Carol n my new family just cant believe your gone. I will cherish your book of your life that's all I have now. But wouldn't change it for anything. Your in my heart n memories. I miss you bro !! Love always your sister Carol (John) Biggs
