“ Cleo or Mrs. Modert as I (Sharon) knew her was a very sweet God loving mother and wife who lived life to the fullest. I enjoyed listening to her as she played the piano in church services. She loved to share life experiences with those around her. She always had pictures of the family to show us. I will miss her. Please accept our condolences from the Jerry Beegle family. Our prayers are with you.

“ *Cleo was such a special Lady. She was a good friend with my Mother until she passed.
We appreciated her kindness and thoughtfulness.

Brenda (Yates) and her family were some of the best friends we had when we first moved to Dixon, Illinois. They lived in Franklin Grove. I remember eating her Mom's (Dathel) eggplant for the very first time and LOVING it. Who would have thought that a little kid would love eggplant? I worked at a body and fender shop with Brenda's dad (Joel) in Rochelle, Illinois before I went into the US Navy. Brenda, you are right, "They just don't make them (our parents) like that anymore."
