“ It's funny; I've been thinking about getting back in touch with Mike the last few weeks. I've missed our friendship we shared when we were younger. I had no idea he was even sick. Now I wish i would have. Barb, Kendra, and the rest of the Rye Family I wish i could say how much it saddens my heart to see this. You have my deepest condolense and sympathy. If you guys want anything, or just want to chat. Give me a call or message me.

“ Barb, Kendra, I am so sorry for your loss!! I read the Kankakee, paper online. That is how I heard about this. I shared with dad, this morning, when I called him. Hopefully he will remember to share with the rest of the family? I tried to find a phone number to offer my condolences. I have many memories of him, from down home, many years ago when he was small. Also when he lived in Harvey, with your mother & dad. We talked a few times, while I lived in Bourbonnais, Kankakee, area. This was a total shock, to me!! I wish I could be there for the memorial service. I can't because of circumstances. But be assured, you will be in our thoughts & prayers, that God & his loving grace will comfort you in this time of sorrow. Please feel free to contact me, anytime.
