“ *My husband and I met Connie and Rex on the Alaska cruise.
Connie and Barry (my husband) hit it off from the beginning. Both are longtime hair stylist. We feel in love with her and her fun loving spirit. One night after a show, Connie went over to each performer and gave them words of encouragement to follow their dreams. She had it all. We are sorry we didn't get to know her longer. Barry and “ We will miss Connie. She was an amazing mother, grandmother, and friend. She lived an a blessed and beautiful life and her family is the perfect example. Two stunning, kind, wonderful, successful, and loving children. A husband as her best friend to travel the world alongside. She was a beautiful soul and she left a beautiful legacy. Rest in peace, Connie.

“ Our friendship was brief. We met on the cruise. What a pistol! So full of life and love! And the gift of gab lol. The news of her situation on the cruise was disturbing and shocking. Was waiting to have dinner with her and Rex when we got the information. So surreal. She loved everyone and so proud of her children and grandchildren. Now she is with Bonnie. Our deepest sympathy to Rex, their children and grandchildren. Rest in peace sweet Connie.

“ The disbelief I feel since hearing of Connie's passing is indescribable. I went to high school with Connie and she also was my hair stylist for years. When I think of her now, it is all about her endless energy, and her huge smile all the time. The warm hugs she would give when we would bump into each other in Kankakee, and that hearty laugh that was all hers. We lost track of each other when I moved to Tennessee 13 years ago, but you will always be in my heart Connie. Thoughts and prayers for comfort and healing to her family.

“ My sweet friend Connie, all the trouble we got into in high school. For talking...of all things. Can you even imagine? I last seen you about three or four years ago at Casey's. We talked about Mila I bet an hour, car doors open the whole time. You were so in love with her. I couldn't believe it when Bonnie passed and now you. I pray God wraps Kalee, brother Toby and your Father (including spouses and little ones) in his loving arms and just holds you so tight. I know how all your heart's physically hurt, I wish there was a way to stop it but that's not happening. I read somewhere " If you feel Grief, then you have experienced Love" and it's true. I will continue to pray for your family, I know you'll be keeping an eye on them Rest in peace Connie, you will be missed
