“ I just can't believe you are gone. When I first heard of your illness, I thought "No way. It's probably a few cells that they can get rid of in no time." You were always the healthy one. Working out, never smoked, raising pitties, taking care of your family. Life just isn't fair sometimes. I just don't have the words to express what I am feeling right now. I so wanted to see you when I come to Illinois in June but that damn cancer had other ideas. You were much too young and too full of life for it to have taken you so soon. Rest in Peace cuz and Say 'hello' to my dad, your dad, Memere and Pepere, Uncle Paul, and Aunt Ann for me and save me a seat at the card table! I'm gonna kick your asses when I get there!
