“ As a childhood friend of Crystal's, I offer my deepest sympathy to her family. I will remember the outspoken, spunky girl that she was when we met in the 7th grade. May her memory live on through those who loved her.

RIP Crystal

Well Sissy i guess you finally found what you looked so long for...unconditional love and peace. He was there all the time.....Jesus! I take comfort in that and that you knew how much I loved you. Your smile will live in my mind and heart forever. It was always there no matter what was going on. You live on in 2 beautiful children who you did what was truly the best for them. It takes a big heart to make that decision. I could go on forever but i won't. Gone but NEVER forgotten. My heart aches but i'm a better person for loving you!!!

“ Crystal, I can't believe you're really gone it hurts.I didn't see you enough in recent years, but know when I did see you that your smile when you seen me made me know we were the best kind of cousins. We always laughed so much when we were together, you'd think we were up to something. Sometimes we probably were.who knows. I am going to miss you so deeply it hurt my heart. I'm glad I can know you're at peace. I love you so much and was so blessed to have you in my life!

“ Tears fall from our eyes
We were not ready to say good bye
So beautiful and young
Your life had just begun
The memories we have of you
Will help us fight our way thru
All the years we should have had
All the good times and the bad
In loving memory of Crystal Lynn Aldridge

“ Don't really know where to begin on what Crsytal meant to me. She was one of the kindest sweetest people that I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. I know that you are finally at peace, but you will forever live in my heart. I love you more than words could express and the giant hole that you have left in my heart can never be filled. I will always remember you warm and infectious smile and laugh. The way your eyes lit up the room just by your smile. I will cherish all of the memories that I had the pleasure of sharing with you! And I will hold them near and dear to my heart. May you rest in peace. Love you "Sissy"...

Love always,
