“ o Grandma,

What a blessing you were in our lives!!! We will never forget the time you spent with us out at the River. i ĳ½ We loved having you there. :) We loved watching you sneak Chase food, hearing you laugh and making you food cuz you were never picky about what we had. We loved listening to all your stories, especially the one about how you got your name. i ĳ½ i ĳ½

We hope you are enjoying the reunion with your loved ones and we will always remember you fondly, with lots of love. We will miss you!!

“ Grandma-

I love and miss you. Ohh what fun we had shopping, bingo, and all the sporting events watching your great grandchildren. I'm so glad for the time we enjoyed together, and the many laughs. Now you are free to dance your heart out with no pain.##imported-begin##Kim Behnke##imported-end##

“ There will come a day when the tears of sorrow will softly flow into tears of remembrance...and your heart will begin healing itself...and grieving will be interrupted by episodes of joy...and you will hear the whisper of hope. There will come a day when you will welcome the tears of remembrance...as a sun shower of the soul...a turning of the tide...a promise of peace. There will come a day when you will...risk loving...go on believing...and treasure the tears of remembrance. All those sleeping in their graves will wake up and sing for joy. As the sparkling dew refreshes the earth, so the Lord will revive those who have long been dead."-Isa. 26:19.
