“ We were shocked to hear of Dale's death. ĩ½His family has been through so much in the last 2 years. ĩ½Please accept our sympathy and know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.

What a wonderful man Dale was. ĩ½We always enjoyed talking with him and learning from him. ĩ½Not just as a Realtor, but as an experienced man with many stories! ĩ½We didn't see him much in the last year, but we will still miss him very much.

He was our Broker for many years at Coldwell Banker, but we will remember him mostly as our friend. ĩ½What a true gentleman.##imported-begin##Kenny and Ricki Kravat##imported-end##

“ Helen, Ron, and family. My sincerest sympathy to you all. I was a friend of Denise and Kenny, and my brother, Max, went to school with Dale. I can remember as a little girl shopping with my Mom at Al & Helen's grocery store. What a wonderful and close family you always were. My prayers will be with you.##imported-begin##Carol Pence##imported-end##

“ To all of Dale's family, Dave and I extend our sympathy. Kenny and Dave were in the same class. Having grown up in the area, we remember all the family. We also remember shopping at Al's when we were kids. Al and Helen were very nice people.

Again our sympathy to all.
