“ Mrs. Davis, Dorothy, Brenda, Jim and Family my sincere condolences on the passing of your son, your brother, and my best childhood friend. Dana was there for me as a friend and playmate from my earliest memories in Hill Crest to maturing into rambunctious teens, he even helped me deliver the K3 Journal-rain or shine!! (We, of course, split the tips and with our spare change road our bikes to Bill Bolger Ford to buy chips and a soda). I am so thankful to have shared a few hours with him last year and for my boys to meet Dana, Mrs. Davis and Dorothy (both never more than a few steps from him-truly “his Angels” by his side)-we shared tons of great memories-laughing from one story to the next. Dana, a true fighter his entire life, be it a “friendly” basketball game of H-O-R-S-E (or one-on-one) or when he was battling illness; he lead with his heart and with a persistence that never gave up- he blocked my shot more times than I want to admit (he was tough!!), by the end of each game- we were both exhausted, -both smiling. Rest in Peace my friend for life. Pat Kuntz

“ I was sad to hear of the passing of Dana. He was a good childhood friend and I have many memories of fishing with him at the Claypits and at his grandmother's house. The many friends he had on Longwood Drive will all miss him dearly. My dad always loved having Dana around the house because he knew that Dana brought out the best in everyone and he had us in stitches most of time from something funny he did or said. Our prayers to the Davis family!

Rest in Peace Dana at the big claypits in the sky, our childhood stomping grounds. Lots of great memories with Dana and the Davis family. Fishing at your grandma's house next to the river, Building choppers and jumping homemade ramps, playing army at Pork Chop Hill, world series baseball games at Mark Twain, building forts in the snow in front of your parents house, and of course cat fishing derbies. It makes me smile thinking of all the good times. Blessings to the Davis clan, Dana we will miss you.
