“ Uncle D, you were my favorite family member next to mom. This breaks my heart, but I'm at peace with it because I know you left nothing on the table in life. You lived your life exactly the way you wanted to and NO ONE could tell you any different. Mom and I laughed when I told her that, because if life is a highway then you definitely didn't drive in the carpool lane (think more shoulder at about 110mph). I think the only time you ever slowed down was to stop and enjoy the people you loved, which was another one of your character traits I admired. Not to mention you were always smiling, even when we knew you were in a lot of pain. Of course with the footprint you left here and the legacy you leave behind, there's a lot to smile about. I will miss your sense of humor and laugh that reminds me of Gram. I will tell my kids about the man who was the pickiest eater that ever lived. I will continue to work on my home and know that somewhere your poking fun at my methods and techniques. I will grin every time I turn on a Godzilla movie knowing how much you and I loved them no matter how terrible they were. I'll never forget the time you helped me set the record straight about my father and I. Thank you for all of the love and memories...sad as we are here I'm sure Gram has been waiting for this moment for some time. I'll take care of Mom, I love you, til we meet again.
