Dan's 46-year career in multiple grocery stores enabled him to make a number of valued friendships. He volunteered for Olivet, helping with its hosting of Bears Camp. He particularly enjoyed spending time with his family whether at home or during one of the many family excursions. It is well known that he was a man of faith—a devoted follower of Jesus. “ Our condolences and prayers go out to all of Dan's family. We first met Dan two years ago when preparing for the wedding of Dan's granddaughter Laura and our son Aaron. Very fine man with a great sense of humor. Have enjoyed corresponding with Dan since then, and we were honored to attend his 75th birthday party in December. We will miss Dan, but know through his strong faith that he is now enjoying heaven.
