

Daniel Lee Langlois

November 9, 1966 - January 11, 2013

Daniel (Danny) Lee Langlois, of Herscher, passed away suddenly from cardiac arrest on Friday (Jan. 11, 2013) at the age of 46. Danny was born Nov. 9, 1966, and was the son of Richard (Red) and Yvonne (Bonnie) Langlois. He lived in the Kankakee area most of his life.

After graduation from Westview High School, Danny was the owner of Daniels Pawn Shop on Station Street in Kankakee for many years. After being a successful entrepreneur, Danny changed careers and worked for Kankakee Grain Inspection in Essex as a Certified Grain Inspector. He loved his job and remained a faithful employee of the company up until his death.

During his youth, Danny played baseball, basketball and football. He was very musically inclined and played many musical instruments specializing in the trombone, violin and guitar. He especially loved playing his guitar and being a part of a Kankakee band. He was an avid and devoted St. Louis Cardinal's fan just like his Dad.

Danny is survived by his two boys, Matthew and Tate, whom he dearly loved; his sister, Cheryl (Paul) Ziemer and very special nephew, Jeffery Ziemer, of Richland, Wash.; his uncle, Wayne Decker (Carol); aunts, Linda Carmen (Wendell) and Nancy LaBrake; as well as numerous cousins and many friends.

Both of his parents are deceased.

At Danny's request, there will be no services with cremation rites being accorded. Donations in the memory of Daniel Lee Langlois may be made to the donor's choice. Clancy-Gernon-Hertz Funeral Home, west Kankakee, is in charge of arrangements.
