“ Awe. I'm so sorry to see this. He was my first friend. We yelled to each other out on the farm to have a conversation since we were too young to use the phone or God forbid cross the highway! Later when we both were living in town and still in our tweens we would go fishing at the river so we could sell our catch of carp to a gentleman who graciously gave us quarters to get candy at Ben Franklin. Rest In Peace Danny! Thanks for all the memories of what a friend was. Even though we hadn't "talked" in years you've always crossed my mind. Hugs, love & my condolences to Dorothy, Sue & all the family. 😞
