“ Grandma (affectionately known as "G-Ma"),
No
flawless sentence structure or perfect vocabulary choice can sum up the love I have for you. Not only were you an amazing grandmother, but you were a saint put on earth, a mentor and a friend to me. I hate that fate has taken over so quickly and unexpectedly, but I tell myself that all this happened because God wanted his angel back. Thank you for all the lessons, laughs, and memories you have given me. I would do absolutely anything to have you here with us again, but I know now you're in God's arms and forever in my heart. I'll miss and love you forever.
Infinite X's and O's.
Love Always and Forever,
Lizzie

“ Dar,
You were the greatest sister-in-law a person could have. You were an angel on earth and no doubt your wings were ready for you in heaven. I know you're there with your God and the rest of your family who went before you but your passing left a hole in the hearts of the ones who loved you on earth. Until we meet again in heaven. I love you and I'll never forget you. ##imported-begin##Mary Shoup##imported-end##

“ Liz,
God has taken you from all of us so quickly. I'm deeply sadden, but know you are in a better place.
I could not have asked for a such a wonderful mother-in-law. I will always remember your nice smile and beautiful paintings.
I will miss you.
Love, Leo
