“ What a sweet man. I first met Dave when he and Nancy started dating. He always made me laugh. His parents were so very nice to me and made me welcome in their home. He made Nancy happy and they had two beautiful children. He worked hard and played well. He was a very nice addition to the Rohe family. We all loved him. I hadn't seen or talked to him for a number of years but I always thought of him on his birthday as it was the day before mine. I am happy that he found happiness with Joyce. I will miss him and I know that Steve and Jenn will miss themhim also. Love to you all. Mary Rohe Okolowicz

It s hard to believe that Dave went to be with the Lord almost a year ago. I met Dave thru his brother Jim and will always treasure his short lived friendship and wonderfully thoughtful gift of an antique coin changer. I Will treasure his friendship and the memories of bringing bakery to him and Joyce every 2 weeks and just enjoying the time he had left.

“ My sincere condolences to you and your family, Jenn. I will always remember your dad taking you, me, and Stacy to the Nutcracker shortly after your mother's passing. I'll also always remember his collection of antiques and toys-some which scared the heck out of us! May he Rest In Peace and may God comfort you and yours during the difficult days and months ahead. Thinking of you and sending much love.
