“ I remember the first time I met Dayle, she was so funny telling her stories of the birds in her back yard. I arrived with Michelle to have Dayle hem some pants for me which she did a great job at. Before leaving, I had a list of things she needed fixed, her dryer, her screen door and I enjoyed the time with her. We will all miss you Dayle!
Love Carl

I spent many days and nights at Aunt Dayles house growing up. Good memories. I still remember the Fanny May Candy box with all kinds of treats in it for Jeff and I to snack on ,on our train ride when we moved to Texas. She will be dearly missed. Love ya Aunt Dayle!!! Jackie
