“ Dena & BJ, Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you during this incredibly difficult time. Deane will be remembered for the kindhearted, loving, and fun husband, father and grandfather that he was. I will always remember moments like when we use to stay up extra late on the weekends so we could see your dad when he arrived home from a week of driving and how much we looked forward to his arrival. He will be missed by all who knew him, but most of all by you. I hope you are able to find some peace during this very painful time.
