“ Dear Aunt Dee, I trust that you know I'll never forget you. I love you so much & always will. I'm going to miss our weekly phone calls, our discussions in politics, the state of the world today, our favorite shows, & our different tastes in food. The memories of all the times we spent together on sundays at 'the farm' & times at your house. I hope you know how honored I felt when you would tell me how much I am like my mom, your best friend. I'm sorry that we weren't able to solve all of the issues of the day & you never got to try tofu! You'll forever live in my heart. Sending love & prayers to all of your family.

“ Aunt Dee, you will never be forgotten. We spent a lot of time with you and Uncle Jerry when we were youngsters, before we moved to Maryland. You were always sweet and gentle and loving to all of us. I know mom was your best friend for a long time. Now you and her have quite a bit of catching up to do! Love you always! Nancy

“ I remember your mom fondly. I was friends with Michelle many years ago (my maiden name is Marcotte) and I remember spending time at your house and playing games with Michelle and Chris. I remember that your mom was very kind. Hold on to memories of your wonderful parents in this difficult time. Thinking of you all.
