“ It was always a pleasure talking to Debbe whenever she would call into the Career Development Division. ĩ½Whether it was a budget question, or why ISIS (IL Student Information System) wasn't doing what it was supposed to, she always had a giggle and you could just see the smile through the phone. ĩ½She was such a down to earth person.

My thoughts and prayers go out to her family at this extremely difficult time, but I find comfort in knowing that in the heavens above, there is another Angel watching over us.

“ I write to offer my sincere condolences on the passing of your love one. It is at times like this that we need comfort and support whether we are acquainted or not. Yes, when unforeseen circumstances befall us, and the enemy death strikes our grief can be great. It may even seem unfair that sickness, which can cause death, has the power to take away someone we love. I have found the Bible to be very comforting in this regard. At Revelation 21: 3, 4, our Heavenly Father has promised, in the near future that death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Yes, in the near future, Our Heavenly Father has also promised that there will be a resurrection: and I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous..." What a grand reunion that will be! You and I have the prospects of seeing our love ones again under the best condition possible, a beautiful Paradise earth; God's original purpose for mankind. All of God's promises will come true, for it is impossible for Our Heavenly Father Jehovah to lie. Please look up the cited scriptures in your personal copy of the Bible. Once again, you have my sincere condolences -John 5:28 & 29, Psalms 37:29, Luke 23:43, Hebrews 6:18. ##imported-begin##Denise##imported-end##

“ Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you. I have worked with Debbe for the past 5 years, she has always been an absolute joy to work with. We have shared many stories about our families, and please know that she loved and cherished each of you. In fact, just recently she sent me an e-mail mere hours after Jaden was born so that we could celebrate her arrival.

Debbe was a gem and will be sorely missed.##imported-begin##Kara McElwrath##imported-end##

“ Dear Diane:

 It has been many years since I have heard from you, and you may not remember me. Debbie and my son, Charlie, were born the same day at St. Mary's. Later, you wrote to me when my son, Joe, was born and told me about Kathy. I still have a photo of your girls together in 1965.

 It seems a short time ago when they taught us how to bathe those little ones.

 My deepest sympathy to you and your family. My thoughts and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Dorothy (Cox) Posing##imported-end##

“ Ron and family:

Please accept my heartfelt condolences on your loss. I've always enjoyed running into Deb at the Courthouse. I know how much she enjoyed her job and I always welcomed the opportunity to chat with her about so many issues. We always enjoyed stories about our love for animals, especially our dogs. Her friendly smile will be missed. My prayers are with all of you.

“ Many years ago I worked at St. Anne Community High School. Deb was the agriculture instructor there at the time. When I left St. Anne, I became employed with the EFE systems. On occasion, I would see Deb at a meeting or at a conference. It was always nice to see her friendly smile. It brought back memories of my days in St. Anne. She will be sadly missed. My sympathy goes to the family.##imported-begin##Peggy (Cooper) Miller##imported-end##
