“ My fondest memories of DeLores are when we were children, on the southside of Chicago. ¶½We attended Raster Elementary School, as did our other siblings. ¶½She was always a welcome sight when I tried to make my way through the playground bullies and rowdies. ¶½I could always count on her to help me out of a tough situation. ¶½My father gave us all nick-names. ¶½DeLores's was "Duke". ¶½My brother was "Bud". ¶½My older sister was "Ya-Ya". ¶½And mine was "Sugar Hole", because of my desire for candy. ¶½Bill House, I know you will miss your Mom. ¶½She touched so many lives and was a good person. ¶½Right now she is probably at a family reunion. ¶½Hey Sis, don't lock the gate!!!Your brother Bill (Sugar Hole)###imported-begin###William Reynolds###imported-end##

“ I became a family member of the Reynolds, when I married DeLores's brother Bill, in 1974. ¶½We would take trips from California to Chicago, and often stayed at DeLores's home. ¶½I found her a fun loving, warm and friendly person to get to know, and she always considered me a part of the family. ¶½One July when we were visiting, she had a special "Christmas Party" for the family in her basement. ¶½She had it all decorated for Christmas with a tree and all. ¶½We exchanged funny gifts, and one gift in particular was a real hit with her sister LaVina. ¶½Those of you who were present for this party, may remember. ¶½She was always taking care of her brother, Joe, and did so until he passed away several years ago. ¶½My thoughts and prayers are with DeLores and her family in this time of great sorrow. ¶½God bless!Robin Reynolds###imported-begin###Mrs. Robin Reynolds###imported-end##
