“ Denny's good hearted ways about him always made me grin. He'd test my memory all the time. Remember this. Remember that? he had a darn good memory. He could get me all mixed up and confused and then straightened out all in one big long rambling sentence.

You are missed my friend.

Rest in peace

“ Dennis my boy, you probably don't remember. 1961 I had a brand new oldsmobile convertible. You lived on the end of Cottage street, next to the park. I had a few too many. I fell asleep by the park. You and your brothers woke me up, laughing and giving me a hard time. You lived a new life and always had a nice word when you saw me. God bless you. Leo Whitten P.S. we are going out of town to see my granddaughter. My thoughts are with you and your family
