“ My deepest condolences to Mr. Noe’s family.
In the late 1990’s and early 2000’s, my family lived close to Fran’s on 17. We ordered many pizzas and were always treated very well. He was a very nice man.

“ Dewey was a good friend . He was so kind and caring. He had a great sense of humor. We loved being around him. He always made you feel special. When my husband got sick..he would faithfully call for an update and to ask if there was anything he could help with. He was a great person and a loyal friend. Rest in peace Dewey. We will miss you and carry you in our hearts. Andy and doris “ *Condolences to your family

The first time I met Dewey we got to talking about Olive Branch Ms and a few other town including Tunica He would talking about family down there. He had many talks about Cubs and Sox Whenever I was around him he was so pleasant. Many many laughs many from his days in the city I told him he should write a book about his experiences it would be a best seller
So sad he is not around to to share more*

Sorry to hear about the loss of Dewey. My condolences to the family. He and my dad were friends and my dad l'd a die hard cubs fan. When Dewey learned my son was a Sox fan he made sure grandpa had Sox tickets to take my son. 10 years ago when my son passed away he had a memorial posted on the Sox board for him. I know beyond doubt it was the best memorial ever.
