“ *Mama Nelson will be sorely missed. She was one of the few people that I know who didn't mind my showing up unannounced on her doorstep. On more than one occasion driving from Chicago and falling asleep at the wheel, I rang her doorbell, and she exclaimed, "Come on in honey, and let me make you a sandwich." We would share some laughs, and I would hit the road again, refreshed. This hospitality is shared by all of her children, who didn't mind my second helpings to her eclair cake when I crashed the family Thanksgiving dinner several years ago. If human beings could pick our parents, we'd all have one of her. She's with her beloved birds in a better place and I will miss her deeply. “ Your mom was a very special lady. She loved you all so very much. Her strength was an inspiration. I only met her after she was sick; but I wish I could have known her before. I always enjoyed talking with her when she was a patient at St. Mary's. She will be missed by many. You are in my prayers. God bless you and may your memories help you deal with your great loss. With deepest sympathy

“ Amy, Brian, Tom, Michael,

I am so sorry to read of the passing of your mother. I½I've worked in schools for many, many years and she was one of the nicest and most understanding parents that I knew.

I will keep her and your family in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Mama Nelson will be greatly missed. I never walked into her house without being welcomed with a smile. Her laugh is unforgettable.

I'm most grateful that she raised a son who is the most loving and compassionate person I know -- Tommy.

I offer my deepest sympathy and shared tears of sorrow. God bless all of you. May the heavens embrace you warmly and give you comfort.###imported-begin###Marissa Rapier###imported-end##
