“ Dear Ron,

Our deepest sympathy goes out to you and your family for the loss of your twin brother and friend. ĩ½He was a true friend to our son Ryan and we greatly appreciate that. ĩ½I hope and pray that your memories get you through this difficult time. Don didn't deserve to die the way he did, and its true that "only the good die young"! He will be greatly and sadly missed by us all. ĩ½Although we only had a short 9+ years of knowing Don, he was always pleasant, cheerful, helpful, caring, outspoken, generous, and fun to be around kind of guy. ĩ½It's our loss that we didn't get to know him for longer than that! We have fond memories to treasure; being with us at dinners, parties, & other special occassions, taking us to the airport, customer service at JCP, and helping us move Ryan. I feel really bad for not being there for him in his time of need, and I hope we can be forgiven for the lack thereof. ĩ½Did not know or realize it was so close to the end. ĩ½Thank you for sharing him with us, ĩ½ĩ½
