“Joan, Sheila and Family: I just received the news of Don's passing when I return to the States and I am so sorry for your loss. Don was a wonderful person , a loyal Union member and a passionate Democrat. All that knew him respected and felt lucky to have known him and call him a friend. He will be greatly missed. I'm sure he is with many friends and family in a wonderful place God has reserved for the good ones and he is looking forward to the the day he sees you all again. I'm sure the two Irishmen, Don & Jack, are enjoying a Guinness. Our love and prayers are with you all.

“ Beneath the sometimes gruff exterior of the man we knew as "Sarge" lay the big heart and mischievous smile of a great guy I was privileged to call my friend.
May God be with you as he is with Don.

Let Don's kind and caring disposition and his steadfast commitment to a fair deal for regular folks be an example for us all. Although his physical contributions will be greatly missed his spirit of volunteerism, love for the natural world and compassion for the American Dream will always be an inspiration. A wonderful Family man, a serious Union man, a dedicated Democrat and a great American. We salute you Brother. Thank you for your friendship. Thank you for your service.
