“ I remember the great time that I had at Donald and Sarah's wedding reception. Everyone was having a great time. Now they are together again forever. I also remember the visit at their home when we were living in Evanston. His family will be in our prayers.

“ I was extremely sad to read of Don's passing. I have done his taxes for many years. We always spoke of our love for cats. He was a wonderful man. My deepest sympathies on your loss. I had no idea in April when I saw him that it would be the last time. My regrets that he deteriorated so quickly. He will be missed. My prayers go out to you all.

“Cousin Don meant so very much to me, and he will be missed immensely. He (and Dave, of course) was the brother we never had. What fond memories I have of our idyllic childhood in the Chicago area! As family, we got together every month and shared every holiday during our childhood years. There were many games of Tripoli, cards, and badminton. Summers were filled with fun trips to the Brookfield Zoo, the Museum of Science and Industry, Starved Rock, the Wisconsin Dells, and certainly the much anticipated annual trip to Riverview Park. One of my fondest memories was when Don took Dave and me to see the Beatles at Comiskey Park! When Don served in the Air Force, he never failed to write and we even played pinochle via mail. We were very happy when he and dear Sarah got married. The years went by and we got busy with our own families, but the bond of family was there. I especially had to laugh in recent years that whenever there was a disaster in California, Don would call and ask if we were okay. In fact, sometimes I didn't even know there had been a disaster until Don called! My thoughts and prayers go out to Sandy and family, Brian, and to Dave and family. Derek, you were a God send and such a wonderful young man to do so much for your grandfather; we thank you for all you did. Don loved you all so much. May memories help you get through this very difficult time. He will be sadly missed and never ever forgotten.... Love, Karen
