Donald Lee Walter, 74, of St. Anne, died Saturday (Jan. 17, 2009) at Merkle-Knipprath Countryside in Clifton, following an extended illness. Visitation will be from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Clancy-Gernon-Hertz Funeral Home, west Kankakee, and from 9 a.m. Wednesday at Kankakee First Church of the Nazarene in Kankakee, until the 10 a.m. funeral service. He was a graduate of Kankakee High School. He was a member of Kankakee First Church of the Nazarene. He was a devoted husband, father, papa and friend. He was an avid NASCAR and Chicago Cubs fan, and enjoyed driving, whether it was on a road trip for vacation or one of his many trips back and forth to the airport. He enjoyed attending his grandchildren's sporting events and recitals and always made room for a slice of lemon meringue pie. He will be remembered for his kind heart and generosity to others. Surviving are two sons and daughters-in-law, Greg and Kelly Walter of Kankakee, Jeff and Joette Walter of Bourbonnais; and four precious grandchildren, Colton, Cassidy, Jacob and Ella Walter. He is preceded in death by his parents and also had two siblings, who passed shortly after birth.

“ Junior & I want you to know that we feel such sorry for all of you.

Your parents loved their family.

There wasn't a time when we were with them that they didn't mention someone in the family. Please keep their memory alive for their grandchildren & how much they were loved by them.

“ I was deeply saddened to learn of your mother's passing and now your father's. ı½I enjoyed working with your mother and considered her a good friend. ı½Your dad took us to catch a plane a time or two and he too, was a great man. ı½I'm saddened at the thought of you losing both parents. ı½Iris kept me up to date in her Christmas cards and I know her children and grandchildren were the light of her life. ı½My deepest sympathies to you all. ı½Susan
