“ To the Family of Donna Brown: My thoughts have been with you all since that deflating phone call on December 23rd, just 2 days before Christmas. As if 2020 wasn't already devastating enough, this just sealed it. I honestly have been thinking of you all — Donna's friends too — with every holiday thing I found myself doing — almost by rote this year. I spent a good deal of time going through the bio via pictures on the website here. I saw all the smiles, all the laughter, all the love right there before my eyes. It's all right there. I see how Donna was surrounded by love — and I know she poured love into everything she did with everyone in her circle. I'm very grateful I got to join you guys for Easter 2019. I wish I could have done that more through the years. But I feel close to Donna through all of you. A sudden loss is so difficult. You're all in my prayers. My sincerest condolences. Much Love, Joe K
PS I'm so sorry. I had typed out a message before but it didn't take.
