“ My deepest sympathies to Donna's family members. I used to work with Steve at St. Martins. I would bump into Donna at the St. Rose afternoon Sunday mass occasionally. She was such a neat person and I so enjoyed speaking with her. I admired her because she was a woman ahead of her time. I was so impressed that she worked full time and raised a family despite your dad being on the road most of the week. May you find comfort in your memories and knowing that she is enjoying her eternal reward. Doris O'Connor
