

Donna B. Hettinger

December 6, 1931 - March 16, 2024

Donna B. Hettinger, 92, formerly of Watseka, passed on Saturday, March 16, 2024, at Prairieview Lutheran Homes in Danforth, IL. She was born on December 6, 1931 in Donovan, the daughter of Leo Bard and Belva Curby. Donna is survived by her daughter Kathy (Tony) Brasel of Bourbonnais, IL; two grandchildren, Courtney (Scott) Coles of Mokena, IL and Trey (Katlyn) Brasel of Manhattan, IL; and four great-grandchildren, Tatum Coles, Beckham Coles, Sutton Brasel and Camden Brasel.

Donna's husbands, Maurice F. Varboncoeur and Paul G. Hettinger, both preceded her in death.

Donna was a real estate broker for many years before her retirement. Earlier in her career, she did tax preparation and some travel work.

She loved spending time with family and friends. She didn't miss many of the grandchildren's sporting events over the years, always a constant presence cheering loudly from the stands. She enjoyed having coffee with friends at the various restaurants throughout town over the years. She was a people person and enjoyed talking with anyone and everyone she met.

Donna was a member of St. Edmund's Catholic Church in Watseka.

There will be no services. Cremation rites will be provided by Clancy Gernon Funeral Home, Bourbonnais.

“ Loved visiting with Donna and doing her hair. She was a friend to everyone.
She lit up a room with her charm....
God's Blessing to all her family.

“ Your mom's love is an external flame that will never be extinguished. May her memory bring you peace and comfort in the days ahead. I know your dad is hugging her now and happy to be reunited again. God bless you and your family . The Sullivan Family
