“ From my early teens, I knew Donna's family. Her brother Jim was my best friend for most of my life. Donna, Betty, Jim and I would "hang out" into my twenties, so I knew these people well. These were all good people and part of my life.

I haven't seen Donna for a number of years and I just learned about her passing. All I can say is... Donna, thanks for being my friend. Also, I would like to extend that thanks to Jim and Betty. I really like these people and think of them often..

“ Dear family of Donna: Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Death is such a tragedy for all of us and it when it touches us personally, few of us find the comfort that we search for. And death itself leaves so many of us with unanswered questions. However, many have found comfort in God's Word the Bible. The Bible teaches that soon, God will swallow up death forever and wipe the tears from all faces. (Isaiah 25:8). God also promises to reunite us with our dear loved by means of a resurrection right here on earth and we can live life to the full in paradise that will be filled with peace, happiness and perfect health for everyone. What a wonderful hope and prospect this is. (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:4; Psalms 37:10,11,29; Isaiah 33:24). As you read the above texts in your Bible, may the wonderful hope they give us, along with loving memories, bring you a measure of comfort during this most difficult time. Sincerely: David Cowles
