“ I visited the Grebner cottage in Interlochen as a college student 40 years ago with various friends of Dora Jean's son Mark. She unceremoniously put me at ease with chores and on a particular morning she showed me how to make pancakes - carefully instructing me to leave some lumps in the batter. I cooked a lot with my own mother growing up, but somehow the energy and inclusion I felt that morning has come to me again and again. Thank you. You made a difference for me - and still do. ”
