“ Your family probably doesn't remember me, but, I lived in Goodrich, (same side of the street as your church, the first house over the RR tracks) as a child and rode the same school bus and shared the same school classes with Rose...I also spent a few "sleep overs" there at your house. My parents had broken up, my father raised us 3 girls, but, coming over to your house and spending the night, well, it would always make me feel better..it was a happy atmosphere, good food and you could feel the love of a loving family. Thank you for treating me like I was somebody special when I came there. Tell Rose I said hello and thank her, too, for the sweet memories you all gave me. Bonnie (Anderson) Koenig
