“ We still laugh that at 80 years old she beat my brother, her grandson, at bowling. He was 36 at the time and still isn't over it! She was a wonderful Grandma!

“ Please accept my sincere condolences to the family of Doris Colbert. I had the pleasure of meeting Doris many years ago and have always had fond memories of the times we bowled together. I met her family over the years bowling with Jessie and now bowling with Jerry. My prayers are with you and God Blessings throughout the New Year.

“ So sorry to hear about Doris. I know she has been failing the last few months. She and Levi were always a special part of Central Christian Church. I always admired Doris for going down to Florida on her own for several years. She loved to bowl! Doris has a wonderful family and I express my sympathy to you.
God bless you. - Sharon Sovinski
