“ I do not remember when I first met this kind lady named Doris, but after we did she was a very kind and sweet lady to not only myself, but my children and my grandchildren. I am so sorry for your families loss. To: Virgil, Carol and family, I send my condolences to all of you. She will certainly be missed. I loved talking to her when she came to my houses as my Avon lady. May she RIP.

“ My first meeting of Doris was over 30 years ago. I was driving home from St. Anne and it was pouring rain. I pulled off the road to wait and happened to be outside her home. She made me come in and wait out the storm. She knew of me, but didnt know me and yet showed extreme kindness and compassion. A very sweet woman who will be dearly missed but never forgotten. ❤️❤️❤️ May the Lord comfort her family until they are reunited.
