“ So many family vacations with Aunt Doris, Uncle Zav, Jeff, Karen and Andy. I loved babysitting for all of you (Jeff, Karen & Andy!) and feel so lucky to have grown up as part of your extended family. If I had to pick one word to describe Aunt Doris it would be “sweet”. She was always such a sweet, positive force. Aunt Doris always had a great sense of humor and I can hear her laugh even now. She was a special person and one regret I have is that our family moved so far away so that we were no longer able to be a part of your lives on a more regular basis. Karen and Andy, you are in my thoughts. I hope there is a heaven because the thought of Aunt Doris being met by Uncle Zav, Jeff, Grandma and Grandpa Mahler, Uncle Garrett, Uncle Frank and my Mom ... and all the others who have passed, well, it's a happy reunion for all of them.
