“ The longest time I spent with Doris was when she and Norm came and stayed with us in Fountain Valley before John's wedding. We had such a good time and really got to know each other. She was a beautiful sister-in-law.

“ Sending our deepest sympathy to all. Doris was my dearest friend, my mentor, my second mother, and as she always said "my partner in crime." She will be missed by many. Cherish your memories and know she is at peace. We will all be reunited some day, " the good Lord willing and the creek don't rise." Love you Doris.
