“ RIP DOROTHY:

I had been doing this woman's hair for so many years... She is now 85, her husband Clarence drove her to the salon every week.....

Way back when she was one of my first clients I absolutely dreaded having a "grey hair" as a weekly client... Now I can tell you... I can not imagine my life with out her...

She became a friend and we bartered, she did my ironing and I did her hair. She even helped me clean my house a few times. I learned how much she loved her two sons. She might not have always liked what they did, like most parents at times; but her love for them was exceptional and undying.

The thing I didn't realize when I started doing hair was the relationships that you will build "clients" that now feel like "family" ....

She has been my client through the dating and marriage of my children, and both of us with grandchildren and even great grandchildren for her. In fact 2 of her granddaughters went to school with my sons. I have seen losses and gains in her life and mine, I had a weekly reminder of what true love looks like, when she would hop (well not really hop- lol) in the car with husband after 60+ years of marriage and he would smile at her with eyes filled of love and tell her how beautiful she is!!!

In the past years of doing her hair I have learned countless lessons from her and her husbands simple ways of life and happiness together that are priceless...the hardest thing I did was leave her and my other precious weekly clients when I moved to Florida.

Sometimes it's not always about the fanciest salon or the most high end clients or hairstyles... It's about the lives that we touch and the lives that touch us!

Rest in peace Dorothy, my heartfelt condolences to your family.

Arrivederci Dorothy!!

It means in Italian 'until we meet again' and I know we will, I will see you again Dorothy in the next life.

Love, Jeannie And Vic Cancialosi
