“ dear maryann , tom, and jennifer and family, so sorry to hear that aunt dorothy passed .. bill and i and our kids, kevin , brian, and karen i½used to love to visit her and we had many family lunches and dinners and other things to share and many happy memories with her and ray and all of you ...we also loved grama livingston and used to bring our cat to your house on a leash when grama lived there .. they both thought that was cute and funny .. aunt dorothy was a wonderful lady and always very kind and loving to all of us .. she will be greatly missed .. i wished so many times to be able to see her and visit with her over the past years but because of the divorce i felt like i should not contact her , now i wish i had seen her even tho i might not have been welcome ..i should have let her make that decision . i did love her very much i½and loved being part of the family for 26 years ..oh, and bill and i became friends for many i½years after the divorce as we shared the kids and grandkids ... jan torres##imported-begin##jan, [mcguffin] torres##imported-end##
