“ My sister Dorothy was the oldest of 13 children. She often said she helped raise us. She married and left home when I was young. She moved away so never saw each other as often as we wished. She was a very pretty lady always kept her children and her home very clean and neat. I remember having to pull your shoes off before going in the house. 😊 She was special and will be greatly missed. I love you Bonnie , Donnie and Debbie you are in my prayers.
