“ My heartfelt condolences to Norma and family on the physical loss of your husband, father and grampa! I only knew Earl through his and Norma’s friendship with Helen P in Calgary. I had met him a few times when his travels permitted them to guests in her home. I know God Will comfort you and keep you during what I’ve learned to call as sad rejoicing’!! Lori (Leppke) Lund

“ Rev Earl Morgan and Thelma were dear friends of my parents when they served, pastoring the Nazarene Church of Clapham in London, from 1950-55. I remember visiting with them in Italy as a ten year old boy, and my dad, with them in Beirut, Lebanon. He was a man of passion, of dignity, of love for the Word and love for the international people they served.. In my childhood memories, they were prominent in my consciousness, spoken of, always lovingly by my parents.

“Earl was truly a special man. So kind, intelligent, and caring. I enjoyed our many conversations during our (hair cutting) time together. I know God is waiting for him with open arms, as he leaves his earthly home. My sympathies to you Norma and family.
