“ I remember as a kid; I thought Eddie and all my older cousin's were so cool. I½ wanted to just be near them so maybe the coolness would wear off. I½ have such fond memories of Mary Jo and Eddie as a young married couple, they went through at times some tough life experiences but never did their bond or love for each waiver. Although I could not be there to say good-bye to Eddie, you were my thoughts daily; I continue to pray for the entire family as strength is needed now. I½ am blessed to have such a wonderful Curwick family.....who ALWAYS treated me like a true Curwick! Eddie....here's to you, a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, and man.....god bless, god speed and see you again on the other side....one day:)###imported-begin##Tami Merica###imported-end##

“ I remember Eddie from many years ago (mid 60's). There was a group of friends that all hung together, Tom and Tim Anderson, Zeb Roberts, Peggy Gulczynski, Diego and Maria Perez, Vickie Dupuis, myself and some others that Eddie's brother might remember. We spend many summers together. I always thought Eddie was the cutest guy and really enjoyed being around him. I am so sorry for your loss. Seeing this article on his death brought back some very fond memories.##imported-begin##Cynde Marshall Boudreau##imported-end##
