“ I really wish I could be there but Bryan unfortunately has to work 10-3 and I don't want to walk away before the service ends. I do remember times when Edith was working in the office when I came to clean and we would talk about something that we didn't think was exactly right and trying to figure out what the solution would be. Would this work or would that work and who to submit our solution to. These were quite insightful. She had a sharp mind. She will be missed. She did a lot for the church and it made the church run better for the work she did.
