“ Tom and Family,

I am grateful for the wonderful neighbors your mother and father were to me while growing up on South Fifth Ave in the late 70's and 80's..

Although I was a loud and rambunctious little boy, your parents always invited me in for a snack or a drink. I also remember being fascinated with the camper your parents had parked in the driveway - your father would allow me to go inside it and look around. They never made a fuss when I ran through your yard while playing with friends.

My prayers for you and your extended family during this time....
